Japanese Bookbinding

Friday 23 March 2012 9.30am - 1pm

This Japanese bookbinding style utilises decorative stitch patterns to sew pages together. The workshop is suitable for people with no experience at all. You will make and take home your own little boxed sample set containing four books made with four different binding styles. You will also get notes to take home so you'll be able to make more books on your own; all kinds of books for all kinds of purposes. You don't have to bring a thing, but if you have some fancy paper or thin card you would like to use - bring it along. Maximum Students: 10

Discount: Do both bookbinding workshops for $135
